Security/privacy policy model

- Interview patients, hospital, comunity physicians, and public health officials regarding their expectations for security and privacy
- Place this information into a formal nodel, preferable an inspectable andmodifiable on-line ontology
- Determine and assess existing security mechanisms that can satisfy that need, specifically for inter-site communication
- Develop technologies where available mechanisms are lacking.